ARTICLE V - COMMISSIONS

The Executive Board may establish Commissions, appoint a Commission Chairperson, and select Commission Members, to aid in the operations and success of the Association.

Commission proposals require a majority vote of the Executive Board.

1. Commissions must have a clear purpose and scope, set forth by the Board.
2. Commissions are small teams, consisting of 3 or 5 individuals.
3. Commissions must also have a Chairperson, who is directly responsible for that Commission's objectives.
 - a. A Commission cannot be formed without a clear and agreed upon Chairperson.
 - b. A Chairperson can also be an Executive Board member.
 - c. Chairpersons may also sit on other Commissions as Commission Members

Commission proposals must include the following criteria:

1. Objective
2. Scope
3. Set of goals
4. Proposed Chairperson

Commission Members may be included in the proposal or appointed later. Commission Members can be appointed by the Chairperson or the Executive Board.

Standing Commissions may be proposed by the Executive Board and brought to vote during an Executive Board meeting.

1. Standing Commissions have a continual duration and its objectives are vital to our mission.
2. Commission Members or Chairpersons should change with time, however, the goals and objectives of that Standing Commission remain.

Select Commissions may be formed and appointed at the discretion of the Executive Board.

1. Select Commissions are fixed in duration and are created to perform specific tasks or objectives.
2. Select Commissions will dissolve when tasks and objectives are completed.

An Executive Board member may recommend the dissolution of any Commission. This process will require reason or justification, which is presented to the Executive Board. Board approval requires a majority vote at an Executive Board Meeting.

If the Executive Board wishes to remove a Commission Member, including Commission Chairperson, from a Commission, they may do so for any reason by majority Executive Board vote.
